

Lisa Ashby
President
Carestream Dental

Lisa Ashby is president of the Dental business at Carestream Health. In this role, she leads the company's worldwide Dental organization and is a member of the company's senior executive leadership team.

Ashby brings more than 26 years of corporate business expertise acquired during a successful career at Cardinal Health—a $100 billion healthcare products and services provider—where she held positions of increasing responsibility. Previously, she was president of medical devices and diagnostics at Cardinal Health with responsibility for six companies generating $3 billion in revenue with a product portfolio ranging from laboratory diagnostics to surgical devices and critical care products. Ashby served on Cardinal Health's operating committee, several company advisory councils and was active in several industry organizations to help influence legislative policy and create awareness across the global healthcare community.

Earlier in her career, she held leadership positions in sales, marketing, supply chain and logistics at Cardinal Health, Allegiance and Baxter Healthcare.

Ashby holds a Bachelor of Arts in public policy/computer science/psychology from Duke University. She is a past board member of BioOhio and AdvaMedDx, and has served on multiple non-profit organizations benefitting local and national communities.
