Carestream Dental Has Eight Reasons for Endodontists to Attend the AAE Annual Session

DENVER—It isn't hard to see the benefits for endodontists when it comes to attending the largest endodontic conference and trade show of the year. However, for doctors still undecided, Carestream Dental has the eight top reasons to attend the AAE Annual Session, April 25-28, in Denver, Colo.

"Carestream Dental recognizes that endodontists stand out in the field of dentistry through not only their advanced education but also their incorporation of state-of-the-art technology," Jordan Reiss, endodontic and 3D imaging sales director, Carestream Dental, said. "We mirror this by providing and supporting consistent advanced education on both our software and our innovative technology."

Education

1. Carestream Dental is offering two 3D imaging hands-on workshops on Wednesday, April 25, at 10:30 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. These courses are designed to help endodontists understand how 3D imaging changes the way they practice.
2. The company is also sponsoring a "To the Point" lecture with Dr. John Khademi on Thursday, April 26, at 1:00 p.m. Dr. Khademi addresses the "The ABCs of CBCT: Academic Answers, Best Practices and Compelling Cases." Afterwards, attendees can meet with Dr. Khademi in person in the Carestream Dental booth, #827, where he'll be signing copies of his book, "Advanced CBCT for Endodontics."
3. Attendees are also encouraged to sit in on one of the many CBCT lectures given by a Carestream Dental 3D endodontist, such as Dr. Mohamed Fayad's surgical track workshop and course

Technology

4. Best-in-class intraoral and 3D imaging will be on display in the Carestream Dental booth.
5. Attendees can learn CS 8100 3D positioning tips and tricks from a 3D imaging specialist to get the most out of their CBCT images.
6. Carestream Dental is continually updating its software to respond to the needs of endodontists. See the latest software upgrades in the Carestream Dental booth, #827.

Attendee Perks

7. Attendees can relax in the AAE Attendee Lounge, sponsored by Carestream Dental. It's conveniently located next to booth #827.
8. Visitors can also take advantage of AAE CS 8100 3D deals—including upgrades, trade-ins and special AAE pricing.
