Carestream Dental Announces Impressive Line-up of Speakers for IDS 2019

ATLANTA—Behind every smile there's a story and—at the International Dental Show 2019—Carestream Dental is telling the stories of patients and the oral healthcare professionals who changed their lives. Over the course of four days, 21 respected clinicians from around the world will present 17 clinical cases and lectures in the Carestream Dental booth.

"IDS is so much more than a trade show; it's a premier international educational event," Ed Shellard, D.M.D., chief dental officer, Carestream Dental, said. "Carestream Dental will play an important role in educating attendees by presenting some of the challenges their colleagues have experienced and how they found success with the right technology."

Some of the top names in oral health, representing orthodontics, endodontics, implantology and aesthetic dentistry, will be presenting in Booth T40 - U49, Hall 10.2.

- Wednesday, March 13
 - Dr. Ed Shellard, general dentist, United States, "How Digital Technologies are Changing Dentistry"
 - Dr. Roberto Aza, endodontist, Spain, "Endodontic Complications and Traumatic Injuries in Anterior Teeth: The Importance of CBCT for Diagnosis and Treatment Plan"
 - Drs. Giuseppe and Fabrizia Luongo, implantologists, Italy, "Digital Implantology: From CBCT to Clinical Applications"
 - Drs. Carlo and Francesco Mangano, implantologists, Italy, "Full Digital Workflow in Dentistry: A Clinical Revolution?"
 - Dr. Lea Al-Matny, oral and maxillofacial radiologist, United States, "Applications of CBCT in Clinical Dentistry"
- Thursday, March 14
 - Dr. Bartłomiej Karas, endodontist, Poland, "Management of Complications in Endodontic Treatment"
 - Dr. Henriette Lerner, implantologist, Germany "The Digital Path to Perfect Esthetics"
 - Dr. Anthony Atlan, prosthodontist, France, "Digital Workflow in Daily Practice"
 - Dr. Adam Nulty, implantologist, United Kingdom, "The Fully Digital Workflow in Guided Implant Surgery"
 - Drs. Walter Devoto, Angelo Putignano and Guido Picciocchi, prosthodontist, Italy, "Intraoral Scanners: They are Easy, They Work"
- Friday, March 15

 - Dr. Miguel Stanley, prosthodontist, Portugal, “Advanced Digital Dentistry Workflow”

“Anyone can walk away from a trade show booth with a brochure, but attendees of Carestream Dental’s live presentations will walk away with tips and resources to change lives,” Shellard said.

In fact, changing lives is the driving factor behind everything Carestream Dental does, from the technology it develops to the doctors, practices and patients it supports. Not only is it the company’s focus for IDS, it’s a critical part of its mission in addition to transforming dentistry and simplifying technology.
